Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Stan:

Please let me thank you again for the extremely informative and useful day at the Agency yesterday. I know full well how much time and effort on your own part and that of your colleagues was devoted to the day, and I can only hope that it was at least in some small measure as rewarding for you as it was for myself and my academic colleagues. Please share this expression of appreciation and gratitude with all of the participants from the Agency, and most particularly, of course, with [REDACTED]

STATINTL

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Steve
